

Email Marketing

With Lumis's range of Email Marketing Systems (EMS) you can take your email campaigns to a whole new level of effectiveness. Latest studies show that most people now spend more time reading their emails than they do surfing the web.

Email is one of the most powerful mediums that you can use to talk to customers and prospects. Our EMS will help your business attract more subscribers as well as improve both your brand equity and credibility. Like any other form of marketing, Lumis EMS are designed to lead to an actual sale. Used wisely and consistently, you'll see an increased response from subscribers. For some businesses it can be more feedback or product/seminar registrations, whilst others may receive more orders.

Lumis can give businesses the choice of several styles of Email Marketing. These EMS include:
